WELCOME

to all who have come to worship at the Cathedral today. If you are visiting, please sign the Guest Book located near the main doors and make yourself known to the Greeters and our Clergy. We'd like to meet you.

As a Cathedral community, we acknowledge that we are in Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq People.

Communicants of All Christian churches are invited to receive communion at the Eucharist.

Should you wish the option of a gluten free wafer, please let one of our Greeters know.

Our Nursery is available at both our 9:00 and 10:30am services, as well as a children's corner with rocking chair in the right transept.

Introit

This Joyful Eastertide
Dutch Carol, arr. C. Wood
(1866-1926)

1 This joyful Eastertide,
away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified,
hath sprung to life this morrow.

*Had Christ, that once was slain,
ne'er burst his three-day prison,
our faith had been in vain;
but now is Christ arisen.*

2 Death's flood hath lost its chill,
since Jesus crossed the river:
Lord of all life, from ill
my passing life deliver. Refrain

3 My flesh in hope shall rest,
and for a season slumber,
Till trump from east to west
shall wake the dead in number. Refrain

READINGS TODAY

COLLECT

Almighty and eternal God, the strength of those who believe and the hope of those who doubt, may we,
who have not seen, have faith and receive the fullness of Christ's blessing, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God of grace, you have freed us from our sins and made us a kingdom in your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Accept all we offer you this day, and strengthen us in the new life you have given us, through Jesus Christ
our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Father, we have seen with our eyes
and touched with our hands the bread of life. Strengthen our faith that we may grow in love for you and for each other; through Jesus Christ the risen Lord.

A READING FROM
THE BOOK OF ACTS

When they had brought the apostles,
they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey
God rather than any human authority.
The God of our ancestors raised up

Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

ACTS 5:27-32

A READING FROM
THE REVELATION TO JOHN

John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

REVELATION 1:4-8

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO JOHN

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews,

Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name. JOHN 20:19-31

The Lord is my strength / and my song,* and he has become / my salvation.

There is a sound of exulta-/tion and victory*
in the tents / of the righteous:

“The right hand of the / Lord has triumphed!*
The right hand of the Lord is exalted!
The right hand of the / Lord has triumphed!”

I shall not / die, but live,*
and declare the works/ of the Lord.

The Lord has pun-/ished me sorely,*
but he did not hand me o-/ver to death.

Open for me the / gates of righteousness;*
I will enter them, I will offer thanks / to the Lord.

“This is the gate / of the Lord;*
he who is right-/eous may enter.”

I will give thanks to you, for you / answered me*
and have become / my salvation.

The same stone which the build-/ers rejected*
has become the chief / cornerstone.*

This is / the Lord’s doing,*
and it is marvelous / in our eyes.

On this day the / Lord has acted;*
we will rejoice and be / glad in it.

Pray for Sri Lankans

BY FRED HILTZ, ARCHBISHOP AND PRIMATE ON APRIL 24, 2019

In the terrible aftermath of bombings of churches and hotels in Sri Lanka on Easter Day, I ask for your prayers for all affected by these hate crimes. Let us remember the 359 persons who, as of this morning, are known to have died and for their grieving families. Let us remember the hundreds more who were seriously injured and for yet more hundreds of people traumatized by what they witnessed. Let us remember too, the first responders who placed themselves in harm's way to help people across lines that distinguish people's politics and religion.

Sri Lanka is a nation in shock – not only by what happened but by what appears to be a lack of action on the part of the government to alert worshippers and tourists to take precautionary measures when there had been warnings that the likelihood of such attacks was very real. The reaction of Sri Lankans at home and dispersed throughout the world is a mix of dismay and outrage. It is all very poignant given a presidential election in coming weeks.

The current Bishop of Colombo, Bishop Dhiloraj Canagasebey released a statement saying “the Church of Ceylon unreservedly condemns these cowardly and cruel acts of terrorism”.

The former Bishop of Colombo, Duleep de Chickera in a statement issued on Easter Day spoke of “a combustible atmosphere with a mix of surging nationalism and faith based identity politics”. In the name of our common humanity he called for the condemnation of the crimes that have shattered the lives of so many people. In supporting a National Day of Mourning, he spoke of the power of people’s movements “...to build social trust and assert that dialogue is the best method for resolving our differences. We will then rise to a new life.”

I ask your prayers for Bishop Canagasabey and Bishop de Chickera, and all leaders who comfort a nation in grief and chaos.

Pray for them as they bury the dead, tend the injured, and work with all those committed to restoring peace and order in the interests of the common good of all.

Such crimes as the world has seen in Sri Lanka sharpen the intent of our prayers throughout Easter, particularly as we pray “that isolated and persecuted churches may find fresh strength in the Easter gospel”. (The Easter Litany, p 122, The Book of Alternative Services)
