A Reading from Acts 1: 6-14

So when they had come together, they asked him, 'Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.' When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them.

They said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.'

Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23 (Read)

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff—they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long.

A Reading from The Gospel According To Matthew

When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.” Then the righteous will answer him, “Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?” And the king will answer them, “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.”

Responses before the Gospel

The Holy Gospel:

Luke 6: 27-38

‘But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you. ‘If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return.* Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. ‘Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.’

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

In peace let us pray to the Lord, saying, "Lord, hear and have mercy."

Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord. We give thanks for the fulfillment of his promise in the gift of the Holy Spirit. We pray for all who confess the name of Christ: fill all of us with the power of that Spirit.

People: Lord, hear and have mercy.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace; where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

People: Lord, hear and have mercy.

For all in our city who are facing trials and difficulties, the homeless, the hungry, the unemployed, those without families. Grant them your salvation.

People: Lord, hear and have mercy.

For those who are sick, and those who are dying. May they be comforted by those who care about them and for those that care for them, remembering especially today...

And for those who have died
and their friends and families who mourn for them...

show them your kindness and
mercy.

People: Lord, hear and have
mercy.

Remember for good all those that love us, and those that hate us, and those that have desired us, unworthy as we are, to pray for them. And those whom we have forgotten, do you, O Lord, remember.

People: Lord, hear and have
mercy.

We give thanks for our homes,
our families, and the peaceful lives. May we discover new and just ways of sharing the goods of the earth, struggling against exploitation, greed, or lack of concern: may we all live by the abundance of your mercies and find joy together.

People: Lord, hear and have
mercy.

We pray for all bishops, priests
and deacons remembering especially Paul, Helen, Ray, Heather, and Maggie; for all who make

music including Paul, Nick, Russ, and our choir, and for all who minister here in so many ways both lay and ordained. May we be strengthened by our communion with all Christ's saints.

People: Lord, hear and have
mercy.

Confession and Absolution

Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Most merciful God,

All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

READINGS AT 9AM

COLLECT

Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord. Keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of his peace, and bring the whole of creation to worship at his feet, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Eternal God, our Saviour Jesus Christ has promised to be with us until the end of time. Accept all we offer you this day, and renew us in his transfigured life; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal Giver of love and power, your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world to preach the gospel of his kingdom. Confirm us in this mission, and help us to live the good news we proclaim; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ACTS

In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. "This," he said, "is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

ACTS 1:1-11

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF
PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

EPHESIANS 1:15-23

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO LUKE

Jesus said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high." Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Thank you

It seems I just sent a note introducing myself at the start of my student placement with you. That was last September, a full nine months ago. The time has gone by so quickly I have hardly had a chance to do all I intended and have not said so long and thank-you properly. I so appreciate your kindness, support, feedback and overall welcome and ongoing kind words of encouragement. This has helped shape me and direct me further toward the authentic Priest I hope to be. Thank- you. Shirley.

June ASK Box

Our June ASK is for supplies for St. George's Youth Net: -Acrylic paint, paint brushes, and blank canvasses.

Cathedral Parking

This is to provide you with advance notice that Congregational Council, in consultation with the Property Committee, will soon enforce a No Parking policy in the circular driveway of the Cathedral. We are all aware of the challenges of finding places to park in the downtown area, and particularly around the Cathedral, but the priority of maintaining access for emergency vehicles to the Cathedral must take precedence over the convenience of the few cars the circular driveway can safely accommodate. Not only is the blocking of the driveway a potential safety issue for anyone attending the Cathedral but one that may also affect the Cathedral's insurance coverage. Along with signage that will identify the circular drive as a "No Parking Fire Lane", 2 additional Accessible Parking spaces will be reserved in the parking area beside the Cathedral for those most in need of parking. We remind all visitors of the ability to park on the West side of Cathedral Lane on weekends and the Rehab Center lot on University Ave. The Property Committee is also exploring the possibility of access to the lot off College Street behind the Cathedral. This decision was not taken lightly but where our collective safety is concerned Council felt it is the responsible thing to do.

Cycle through our Cathedral!

Today, Sunday, June 2nd 1 - 2 pm, as part of Bike Week 2019, you will have the rare opportunity to tour our Cathedral by bike! Travel around the 1/10 kilometer indoor pathway where guides will be available to answer questions and provide refreshment.

Sunday School Barbecue June 16!

Please join us following the 10:30am Service on Sunday, June 16 in the Great Hall for our Sunday School barbecue. We are looking for donations of sweets and salads, and barbecue chefs. Sign-up sheets are on the table and all contributions are much appreciated. All are welcome! Please note that this will mark the end of the Sunday School term. Sunday School will resume in September.

Outreach to Infants

One of our outreach projects is the Mother and Child support Programme at Phoenix House. Infant related items, baby food, formula, wipes, diapers etc. are always in need. Please consider bringing an item to the Nursery on Sundays in support of this program. Thank you!

Summer for Children of our Sponsored Families

If anyone is interested in helping to fund summer arts and sports activities for the children of the Cathedral's two refugee families, please send donations to the church earmarked for the Mando family, ages 3 to 18, or for Anes, son of Ragheed and Nam. The Mando boys took Neptune summer camps last summer and loved it. Thank you.

Prouty 2019!

Our Rector and Dean will be participating in THE PROUTY 2019 on July 12/13 during his summer vacation in New Hampshire. Information about the event is on display in the Cathedral along with his biking jersey. He invites you to write names of people you would like remembered on his shirt – a show of support and a source of inspiration for him as he participates with his family in this annual cancer fundraiser.

Prayer for Jerusalem Sunday

Written by the Most Rev. Fred Hiltz

O God, We give thanks that your dear Son has gathered us in the embrace of his redeeming love and sent us to make that love known to the ends of the earth. We pray your continued blessings on the steadfast witness of the Church in Jerusalem and throughout the Middle East. Give your deep joy to those who welcome the pilgrims seeking to know this land and its many peoples. Grace those who proclaim the Gospel. Guide all who teach a new generation of young people. Draw near to those who are sick and bless those who tend them. Sustain the hope in all who long and labour for a just and lasting peace in the land of The Holy One. And may the companions of Jerusalem be many and faithful. We pray in the name of our merciful Saviour, Friend, and Brother, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
