T. Tallis (c.1505-85)

Chant by S. S. Wesley

(Sung by the choir)

25 O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy creatures.

26 So is the great and wide sea also, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

27 There go the ships; and there is Leviathan, whom thou hast formed to take his pastime therein.

28 These wait all upon thee, that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

29 When thou givest it to them they gather it; and when thou openest thy hand they are filled with good.

30 When thou hidest thy face they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath they die, and are turned again to their dust.

31 When thou lettest thy breath go forth they are made; and thou renewest the face of the earth.

32 Let the glorious majesty of the Lord endure for ever; let the Lord rejoice in his works.

33 The earth shall tremble at the look of him; if he do but touch the hills they shall smoke.

34 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have my being.

35 And so shall my words please him: my joy shall be in the Lord.

36 Praise thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise the Lord.

Te Deum in G

R. VAUGHAN WILLIAMS (1872-1958)

We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee, the Father
everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens
and all the Powers therein.
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim
continually do cry:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the
Majesty of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise
thee;

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets
praise thee;

The noble army of Martyrs praise thee;
The holy Church throughout all the world
doth acknowledge thee,

The Father, of an infinite Majesty,
Thine honourable, true, and only Son,
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the kingdom of heaven
to all believers

Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.

Come, Holy Ghost

T. Attwood (1765-1838)

1 Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
and lighten with celestial fire
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.
Thy blessed unction from above
is comfort, life, and fire of love.

2 Enable with perpetual light
the dullness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soiled face
with the abundance of thy grace
Keep far our foes, give peace at home:
where thou art guide, no ill can come.

3 Teach us to know the Father, Son,
and thee, of both, to be but One,
That through the ages all along,
this may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

The hand of the Lord came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord God, you know." Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord God to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the Lord." So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude. Then he said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.' Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the Lord, have spoken and will act," says the Lord.

EZEKIEL 37:1-14

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ACTS

When the day of Pentecost had come, the apostles were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

ACTS 2:1-21

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus said to the disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

A friendly reminder

The Cathedral and Synod Offices are closed on Fridays at 12noon for the summer.

The Organ Restoration Project

Last Monday boxes of new and refurbished pipes were delivered to the Cathedral. On Tuesday, Robert Hiller, from Casavant Frères, and three technicians, began the work of removing the old damaged pipes and installing their replacements. Six ranks totalling 366 pipes were either replaced or refurbished. All these pipes are called 'reeds' with names such as trumpet, oboe, clarinet etc., and are fundamental to the tonal colour and quality of the organ.

In addition to the pipe work, three new motors and shutter systems will be installed so that the three divisions of the organ under expression (Swell, Choir and Solo) will finally have their full dynamic range restored. These three divisions consist of multiple ranks of pipes contained in large boxes with louvers (shutters) that can be opened and shut. Three expression pedals control the position of these louvers.

This current phase of the restoration project will be completed by the end of June. It will be a joy (and relief) to hear the organ returned in large part to its former glory. There is still plenty of work to be done, but this is a significant first step in the ongoing work of bringing to life the original scope and specification of this fine instrument.

I am very grateful to all of you for your support of this project and to Robert and the people at Casavant for the outstanding quality of their work.

Paul Halley
Organist & Director of Music

St. James Herring Cove

During the months of July and August, there will be a weekly service on Wednesday evenings. There will be no Sunday Service.

Cathedral Parking

This is to provide you with advance notice that Congregational Council, in consultation with the Property Committee, will soon enforce a No Parking policy in the circular driveway of the Cathedral. We are all aware of the challenges of finding places to park in the downtown area, and particularly around the Cathedral, but the priority of maintaining access for emergency vehicles to the Cathedral must take precedence over the convenience of the few cars the circular driveway can safely accommodate. Not only is the blocking of the driveway a potential safety issue for anyone attending the Cathedral but one that may also affect the Cathedral's insurance coverage. Along with signage that will identify the circular drive as a "No Parking Fire Lane", 2 additional Accessible Parking spaces will be reserved in the parking area beside the Cathedral for those most in need of parking. We remind all visitors of the ability to park on the West side of Cathedral Lane on weekends and the Rehab Center lot on University Ave. The Property Committee is also exploring the possibility of access to the lot off College Street behind the Cathedral. This decision was not taken lightly but where our collective safety is concerned Council felt it is the responsible thing to do.

New clinic in Mozambique restores dignity to women's healthcare

May 21, 2019—By Mike Ziemerink

In October 2018, PWRDF announced it was building with partner EHALE three Maternal, Newborn and Child Health (MNCH) dispensaries in Nampula Province, Mozambique. Now with one dispensary open for business, mothers and children are getting the healthcare they desperately need.

These dispensaries would not be possible without the support of PWRDF's incredible donors. During the 2018 World of Gifts campaign seven "Brick and Mortar" donations of $7,500 each came in. Combined with a 6:1 match from the government of Canada, each gift resulted in $52,500 toward a dispensary.

Four individuals made brick-and-mortar donations as well as three church bodies:

- The Anglican Parish of Sunny Brae in Moncton, New Brunswick

- St. Martin's Cathedral in Gander, Newfoundland
- The Diocese of Central Newfoundland

The first dispensary opened in late December 2018 and has already been successful in improving maternal and newborn health in Liupo, Nampula Province.

The dispensary provides women with all kinds of healthcare services under one roof. Previously, women had to walk between various buildings, sometimes far apart and in extreme weather, discouraging them from seeking healthcare in the first place.

One patient from the dispensary described how the new building has made life easier for women in Liupo. "Before the new building was built services were received from a very small space with no dignity or privacy," she said.

"Women were afraid to speak to nurses because there was no privacy to answer questions, but construction of the new dispensary has improved services a lot."

The dispensaries provide family planning consultations, pre- and post-natal care for women, vaccination services, growth and development monitoring for children under five and pediatric triage. Every pregnant woman and her spouse who comes into the clinic undergo mandatory screening for HIV and AIDS.

"It's incredible how many services the dispensary can provide for these women under one roof," said Richard Librock, PWRDF's External Funding program manager who is monitoring the construction of the dispensaries.

The construction considers everything from weather patterns, convenience and children's safety. Lessons learned from the first build will be taken into account during constructions of the next two dispensaries.

Powerful cyclones are a constant threat in Mozambique, as recently seen by the destruction caused by cyclones Idai and Kenneth, so the construction is as resilient as possible. It is recommended that roofs are sloped between a 25- and 45-degree angle in order to prevent gale force winds from getting underneath and uplifting the roof, so the dispensary's roof is within those parameters.

“When designing these dispensaries we consider Murphy's Law, what can go wrong, will go wrong, so we take every precaution,” said Librock.

In order to be as sustainable as possible the roof was retrofitted with an eavestrough system that channels rainwater directly into three 40 cubic meter cisterns. These cisterns provide the entire dispensary with water for the newly built washrooms and sanitation stations.

Each of these cisterns holds 40,000 litres of water. This means that during a normal rainy season, when approximately 900 millimetres of rainfall is received within a year, the cisterns can collect enough rainwater to supply the dispensary throughout the eight-month dry season that follows, which is especially helpful in an area prone to drought. In a prolonged drought, which might last years, the cisterns remain useful in that they are easy to refill with a water truck.

The dispensary draws electricity from a reliable, renewable source of energy known as Caborra Bassa, the largest dam in Mozambique.

Construction of the next two dispensaries in Mozambique is slated to begin shortly in two other communities in the districts of Mosuril and Erati, ensuring more women and children can access healthcare with dignity.
