1 O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship, and fall down, and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

Jubilate Deo B. BRITTEN (1913-76)

O be joyful in the Lord all ye lands;
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves;

we are his people and the sheep of his

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with

be thankful unto him and speak good

For the Lord is gracious; his mercy is

READINGS TODAY

COLLECT

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you riches beyond imagination. Pour into our hearts such love toward you, that we, loving you above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God of glory, accept all we offer you this day, and bring us to that eternal city of love and light, where Christ is King. We ask this in his name.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Father, you restored us to life by raising your Son from death. May we who receive this sacrament always be strengthened to do your will, in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ACTS

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshipper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

ACTS 16:9-15

A READING FROM THE REVELATION TO JOHN

And in the spirit, an angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day - and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honour of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practises abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life. Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

REVELATION 21:10, 22-22:5

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus answered, "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

JOHN 14:23-29

Or

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO JOHN

After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids -blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Stand up, take your mat and walk." At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

JOHN 5:1-9

May God be merciful to / us and bless us,*
Show us the light of God's countenance and / come to us.

Let your ways be known u-/pon the earth,*
Your saving health a-/mong all nations.

Let the peoples praise / you, O god;*

For you judge the peoples with equity
And guide all the nations / upon earth.

Let the peoples praise/ you, O God;*
Let all the / peoples praise you.

The earth has brought / forth her increase;*
May God, our own God, give / us a blessing.

May God give / us a blessing,*
And may all the ends of the earth stand in / awe of God.

Bulletin Notices

For inclusion in Sunday's bulletin, notices must be received by the preceding Wednesday.

Cathedral Parking

This is to provide you with advance notice that Congregational Council, in consultation with the Property Committee, will soon enforce a No Parking policy in the circular driveway of the Cathedral. We are all aware of the challenges of finding places to park in the downtown area, and particularly around the Cathedral, but the priority of maintaining access for emergency vehicles to the Cathedral must take precedence over the convenience of the few cars the circular driveway can safely accommodate. Not only is the blocking of the driveway a potential safety issue for anyone attending the Cathedral but one that may also affect the Cathedral's insurance coverage. Along with signage that will identify the circular drive as a "No Parking Fire Lane", 2 additional Accessible Parking spaces will be reserved in the parking area beside the Cathedral for those most in need of parking. We remind all visitors of the ability to park on the West side of Cathedral Lane on weekends and the Rehab Center lot on University Ave. The Property Committee is also exploring the possibility of access to the lot off College Street behind the Cathedral. This decision was not taken lightly but where our collective safety is concerned Council felt it is the responsible thing to do.

Bake Sale

The St. Catherine's Group will be holding a Spring Bake Sale on Sunday, 26th May following the 10:30 service. We will have many home-made things to choose from, such as cookies, squares, jam, muffins and loaves. The proceeds from the Sale help us to support Cathedral Outreach Projects.
